

Forestry Enrollment and Job Placement

FORESTRY

Forestry Enrollment

	Fall Semester Enrollments
	03-04	04-05	05-06	06-07	07-08	08-09	09-10	10-11	11-12	12-13
Forestry Enrollment	53	43	43	40	41	52	47	59	69	74

Source: <http://www.uky.edu/IRPE/students/enrollment/college/deglev.f0312.01AG.shtml> Site Accessed 09/10/2014

Job Placement

Class	# of Graduates	% Employed in forestry and natural resources	% Employed in non-forestry fields or employment unknown	Description of forestry & natural resources employment (employer or profession)
2013	17	88%	12%	U.S. Forest Service, Kentucky Division of Forestry, Kentucky Dept. of Fish and Wildlife, Washington State Dept. of Natural Resources, Cooperative Extension, consulting forester, forest products, utility forester, arborist, forestry research, graduate school
2012	5	80%	20%	arborist, city government (parks and natural areas), land appraisal, forester at military base
2011	12	83%	17%	utility forester, arborist, graduate school, university research, city government (parks and natural areas)

Source: Information was gathered from correspondence with alumni within the first 9-12 months after graduation. If available, information on employment was updated to reflect current employment.

To learn more about the Undergraduate Forestry Program, contact:

Laura Lhotka, Academic Coordinator
(859)257-8718 | laura.lhotka@uky.edu