Your Support is Needed for Our Future Poultry Leaders

The National Poultry and Egg Conference helps develop leadership and decision making skills in youth who are interested in Poultry and Poultry Products. Outside support for the conference helps defray costs associated with the conference and associated leadership contests. Please consider supporting this conference to ensure its continuance at its current high level of quality.

About The Conference

The National 4-H Poultry and Egg Conference recognizes 4-H members who have excelled in their state 4-H poultry learning activities.

The overall objective is to offer national level activities and contests designed to introduce participants to poultry and the poultry industry. Life skills are also learned through preparation for the various contests.

How You Can Help!

There are several ways of helping the conference. Cash donations to our non-profit organization will assist in covering expenses. We will also accept some in-kind donations with prior confirmation.

To receive further information, and be placed on the donor list, contact Dr. Jacquie Jacob, conference Secretary at the address listed in the box to your left. We thank you for your consideration.
